What is happening?
Astaghfirullah she thinking I'm those people and she thinks I'm fake. I'm crying while I'm praying last time in isha because it's first time someone said it to me. And I was so sad today because my friend died 😢 the same time I'm tired cleaning and preparing our madrasah because tomorrow is graduation day.

And now she block me

She didn't even talk clear with me and just leaving immediately. What if she is wrong. It's sin being suspicious.

I ask u some questions about how u get cheated and when was last time u talked to them Lucas and Nadia and can u send us u tell before u send her money

Amirah

how u get cheated and when was last time u talked to them Lucas and Nadia and can u send us u tell before u send her money show us account where u sent money

That NADIA it's long time ago I asked her how can I study in Germany and she said I will help you and I send her a money to Manila city as she said she will coming to philippine. That LUCAS I don't know him

That is long time ago akhiy when my account not yet blocked in Facebook I asked my cousin send the money by remittance but my cousin lost the paper as we thinking maybe she is scammer

Amirah

Active 3 hours a...

U sent her money in Manila how I mean she dint have account in philpine its not possible u can register case against her, do u have any receipt of sending money show us?

It's possible to send akhiy in remittance just saw the ID and tracking number. No need account.

Just show them ID and tracking number

How long u talk to her before sending money I mean and ur cousin used identity card u can go and check in bank to ask them to give us this person place adress and number if u get cheated also we want to save others too

Amirah

Active 3 hours ago

Not bank akhiy just remittance shop .many branch in philippine in different city

But company have records u can track them try it give it to us we Wil do something

That is long time ago my cousin throwed it because I hide to my mother that I send money to her but she is scammed. I know my mother will be mad at me

Companies have records in their system

I will try to ask again my cousin that time it's him who I asked to send money because I don't know what to do I'm sending remittance when I'm still in high school.

I think she is not girl.

When I asked her call me she don't call. Maybe hiding the voice maybe he is male.

Yahh show us that's good it's also benifit to u maybe your lost money will back how much money u sent her before? For studies

Just 3,000 php.

I cannot contact her In Facebook
because she do not reply me
there. It's long time ago

I cannot get back that money he or she maybe hiding. I am not sure if she is female

U sent her just 50 euro near amount are u sure Maybe u

Amirah

Active 3 hours a...

U sent her just 50 euro near amount are u sure Maybe u hiding something

U know cost of studying in Europe it's in thousands euoro how can she ask u such a little amount just 3000 php

Also if I'm those person who cheated her and you why I told at the first place that I am from philippine. As I saw someone shared that pic fake account not from RUSSIA, BOSNIA AND GERMANY but philippine. Of course I'm thinking maybe that person who cheated us changed name again and will never tell to us they are from philippine.
Right?

That is because she asked me send just philippine money and she will change it to money

Amirah

Active 3 hours a...

That is because she asked me send just philippine money and she will change it to money changer to euro

I know it's thousands but she asked me just so she can be the one to apply for me at manila for my papers. So it's need philippine money not euro.

How can u believe someone else so easily like u didn't even saw her on call u just send her money like that

Yes because I'm stupid that time I'm too young I believe easily

I didn't told my parents I'm sure they will be mad at me

Amirah

Active 3 hours a...

I'm but we want u to clear us by showing that receipt u know it's hard for us realy so much

And actually my net isn't working well here

APR 14 AT 6:21 PM

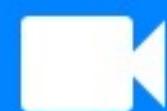

I told you we lost it because it's long time ago last year when I send to that fuck girl. My cousin said it's scam maybe because she didn't reply us again and because I'm scared to my mother that maybe she will find that receipt my cousin said we will throw this because we are waiting for nothing. But still I didn't lose hope I prayed that, and assuming maybe she will come back to contact me but sadly, she didn't.

Amirah

Active 3 hours a...

It doesn't matter now if that fuck girl scammed me. But I'm thinking how can your sister said it's me those person who cheated you huh? How sure she is it's me? What is her proof?

After suspecting someone then she will leave like that and blocking me. SubhanALLAH

She don't even know who I am then how can she think easily to judge me I'm fake!

If I'm those person I shouldn't annoy you again or maybe now I should hiding and will get lost on your life as now you knew already they are fake and will not tell I'm from philippine. But I told you both when you asked me I honestly answer I'm from philippine.

Amirah

And PS, don't just ignored this and leave like no reply. This is hurt me that someone thinking I'm fake. Well you guys don't be so pride I might be just younger than you but my parents raised me good and not scammer.

APR 14 AT 9:04 PM

Philippine is not just an island place but this is a country so many people who live. I understand to not trust easily, But don't involve other people on the mistake of that person who cheated you, just tell her I'm not fake. I'm also a victim of that. Anyway I shouldn't explain a lot about my self because I'm not that person and I haven't any connection with that. It's just hurt me that someone just coming and say about it!, never in my life someone said I'm fake just her. Just because I'm from philippine. I guess she will also suspect others from philippine and say this and that. We aren't so cheap as you think. I'm sorry if I talked a lot I feel upset. I'm crying on my pray. I wish ALLAH grant what you deserves both.

Allahumma ameen
